

MARKET LAMB & GOAT CLINIC

RAMONA FAIRGROUNDS – MARCH 1, 2014 – 10:00 AM – NOON

FEATURING CLINT CUMMINGS – NATIONAL LIVESTOCK JUDGE

Mr. Cummings is a nationally respected livestock judge from Arroyo Grande, CA and a distributor of High Noon Feed. He recently judged 834 lambs at the 2013 Iowa State Fair.

See video of Iowa State Fair at (<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=ROx53tMyk90>)

AGENDA

- An opportunity for local students to receive first hand direction from a national livestock judge
- Learn how a judge evaluates animals from a structure, muscle and movement perspective
- Review show ring trends and discuss feeding and exercise techniques to achieve ideal finishes
- Receive showmanship insight from an on-site critique of experienced lamb and goat showmen
- Promotional materials will be distributed to assist students in marketing their projects

40 LAMBS AND 8 GOATS ON-SITE

- Lambs and goats will be on-site for students to evaluate or purchase after clinic is completed
- Animals were born in October – December for May – July fairs and will be fixed priced at $250 - $350
- Breeder may conduct “bid offs” in situations where multiple buyers want the same animal
- Mr. Cummings will donate a bag of High Noon Feed with every animal purchased.
